Epworth League Convention Postponed.

On account of the prevalence of small pox in various places the Epworth League convention announced for May 9 and 10 at Cameron, W. Va., has been postponed indefinitely, by order of the committee; so Mr. D. C. Harkins writes to the INTELLIGENCER.

Funerals Yesterday.

Charles Williams, of South Jacob street, who died on Friday, was buried at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his late home. The body was taken down to McMeekin for interment.

A small child of Thomas Kline, an electric car operator living on South Jacob street, was buried yesterday afternoon, the interment being in Mt. Wood cemetery.

Captain Carr's Funeral.

The funeral of Captain Milton T. Carr, whose death was announced last week in the INTELLIGENCER, took place yesterday afternoon at half past 3 from his late home east of the city. The attendance of friends and acquaintances, especially of older residents, was notably large. Rev. Dr. Swape conducted the obsequies, which were very solemn and impressive. The interment was private in Greenwood cemetery.

Says he was Robbed of $80.

A Hungarian employed at the Martin's Ferry blast furnace, who is known as "One-eyed John," claims to have been robbed of $80 at the Wheeling Creek coal works on Saturday night. He had two men arrested yesterday by the Martin's Ferry police, but could not prove these were the guilty parties and they were allowed to go until John has more evidence.

Council Committee Meetings.

An important meeting of the council committee on claims has been called for this evening. Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the committees on railroads and streets, alleys and grades are called to meet jointly to consider the ordinance granting Mr. Anton Reymann the right to lay a switch from the B. & O. road into his proposed new building on the northeast corner of Main and Sixteenth streets.

Excursion on the River.

The Central Garden Club give their third annual excursion yesterday, and it was the finest lately given on the Ohio. There was not a disturbance of any kind, and the day was spent pleasantly by all the crowd. The Central Garden Club has its new club house nearly completed and intends to give a grand blowout in the near future. The new house looms up in great shape, and can be seen all over East Wheeling.

Madame Rolin at Pittsburgh.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch of Sunday has the following: Mrs. Kate Rolin made a fine impression on those who were fortunate enough to hear her song recital at Carnegie Hall Friday evening, the programme of which was printed last Sunday.

She has a voice of notable power and range, even in scale and pleasing in quality. She sings with artistic finish and with a zest that is exhilarating to behold.

Mrs. Rolin ought to be heard again here, (where she has many friends of girlhood days) under auspices that assure her the right kind of an audience—any at an Art Society reception.

In the Circuit Court.

In the circuit court Saturday, before Judge Paull, in the case of City vs. Charles Cowan, Harry G. Arkle and W. B. Gardner, the judgment of police court was affirmed.

The petition of Amanda Phillips, guardian, for authority to sell her ward's real estate, was continued until May 11.

Before Judge Campbell, Messrs. Henry Kraft, Christian Schnepf and H. F. Nolte were appointed trustees of Zion's German Lutheran church.

BRIDGEPORT GETS IT.

The Belmont County Republicans' Convention

TO MEET THERE TUESDAY, JUNE 11.

Lots of Aspirants for the Positions for Which Nominations are to be Made—The Choice of the Convention Virtually Tantalizing to an Election at the Polls.

A meeting of the Belmont county central committee was held at St. Clairsville last Saturday to determine when and where the convention for the nomination of county officers should be held, and to select delegates to the state convention to be held in Kanawha, May 27. Bridgeport and St. Clairsville were competitors for the convention, Bridgeport winning in a vote of 23 to 18.

One feature of this contest, which Bridgeporters could not understand, was the fact that some of the "Liver Front" committeemen's proxies were cast in favor of St. Clairsville.

The time for holding the convention was fixed on June 11.

As Belmont county is so surely and largely Republican, this convention promises to be a decidedly lively one in the scramble for nominations. There will be two representatives nominated, one auditor, one recorder, a clerk of the court and a commissioner. There are already six candidates for representative, about sixteen for recorder, seven for commissioner and four or five for auditor, with several prospective dark horses being groomed, who are of course in the hands of their friends and willing to make personal sacrifices in the interest of their party.

With so many aspirants, it is about impossible at this time, with the exception of two of the candidates, to make any kind of prediction as to the outcome. These two are Mr. Emerson, who has no competitor for clerk of the court, and Mr. Howard, for representative. These two gentlemen are especially well equipped for the positions they aspire to, are very popular, and are strengthened by other reasons which enter into politics in the distribution of county offices.

All the candidates who are in the contest are first-class, strong and competent men, and the uncertainty of political conventions is about the only thing from this point of view that can be looked forward to to indicate the result.

The primaries to elect delegates to the county convention will be held on the Saturday preceding the convention, which will be June 8.

The delegates to the state convention are Hon. Lorenzo Danford, Hon. J. C. Heinlein, Hon. J. W. Nichols, Judge L. H. Gaston, Hon. J. W. Hollingsworth, W. W. Hanlon, C. J. Howard, M. Cowan, J. Davis, J. E. Blackburn, L. C. Sedgwick, W. T. Lewis and W. H. Jones. F. B. Archer was endorsed as a candidate for state treasurer.

BURT'S ABILITY

As a Railroad Manager is Shown in Improvements in the Ohio River Road's Service—A Through Train to Cincinnati.

The new general manager of the Ohio River railroad, Mr. George A. Burt, is shaking up things. He has removed Master Mechanic Dorsey and appointed A. Courtite in his stead; he has relieved J. E. Mock, superintendent of bridges and trestles of half his job and appointed Charles Bryan in his stead; he has shifted the trainmen about; he has reorganized the freight service, and on June 1 a new fast train will be put on to run from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, thus making a great bid for through passenger traffic.

The entire service is being put into better condition than it ever was before, and business is increasing. They are now handling over 300 cars of freight every day. One of the directors says that the outlook for business this summer is the best in the history of the road.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism. From the Groton, Connecticut, Review.

David Lewis, who has been afflicted all winter by rheumatism, is out again and all due to one of the medicines advertised in our columns. After trying everything possible, he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which has relieved him of all pain, from which he was a constant sufferer, and promises to make him fit for duty soon. We know David has been a great sufferer and are glad to see him around again.

EVERY body interested in Wrappers should read STEIFEL & CO.'S ad. to-day.

The Pan-Handle Dyeing establishment, owned by John Holmboer, at No. 1431 Market street, is the best equipped house of its kind in Wheeling. In addition to the dyeing and cleaning department a corps of first-class tailors are employed, who can do repairing as neat as it is possible. Clothes and ladies' garments, cleaned or dyed, can be made to look like new. Satisfaction guaranteed.

At The Very Top!

If you're up or down our way to-day look in our big Market and Fourteenth street window and see that array of $10 and $12 Men's Suits.

They're the product of years of experience. To quote an old saying, "There's plenty of room at the top," but it's because there are so few to occupy it. No house that has to pay the manufacturer a big profit on account of their inability to plank down the spot cash for large quantities can afford to sell such Suits for $10 and $12. Many a man we used to sell $20 Suits to means our $10 and $12 ones now. That's what a big business and spot cash has done—cheapened satisfaction—made the goods better. Every Suit in the lot is a living witness to it.

Talk about variety—let 'em all toot their horns—even if they have not a fish to sell—every blast helps us—gets folks to thinking—gets 'em to looking—and when you look through their stock and ours, their handful of $10 and $12 Suits—and our tablefuls—as many at $10 and $12 as others have got at every price—the hunt is over, satisfaction is found—and it's HERE. It don't make any difference to us—you know what a Suit costs. There's no reason why it shouldn't fit. It isn't worthy a moment's consideration if it doesn't, and just as perfectly as the highest price in stock. Unless you're satisfied to keep the Suit we don't want to keep the money.
